1	English Language Exam Preparation	GCSE AQA Language Paper 1 (AO1, 2 & 4) Retrieve and interpret information	Students can use different ways to improve their English Language and Literature skills: - Visit the website www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize This website is the best way for pupils to revise key conventions for different types of writing and to consolidate their literacy skills. Also, it is a great tool to revise the prose studies, drama and poems for the English Literature exam. - Other Websites Lots of websites offer excellent revision materials, for example: www.youtube.com – There are a variety of topics and resources available on youtube. www.iamlearning.co.uk – This offers a range of exercises to consolidate pupils' literacy skills. www.yorknotes.com www.sparknotes.com - Podcasts: Hull Trinity House Academy has purchased podcasts for different GCSE topics and skills. They are available to download from the school area. Pupils only need to bring a memory stick and speak to a member of the English team, and it is totally free of charge. - Revision Guides There are many guides available, but our exam board for English Language is AQA and for English Literature is Edexcel, so if you are to buy one, make sure that it is appropriate for it. It would be useful to check the York Notes and SparkNotes websites as many topics are covered on the two websites. If unsure, they should speak to a member of the English team.
